Friday 1st
March 2019

Don't forget to dress up as your favourite book character for our parade on Friday 8th March to celebrate World Book Day.

Also, bring a book to school to swap.

The Book Fair will be open after school until 4.00pm each day. The last day to purchase a book will be Tuesday 5th March when it will be open until 5.30pm.

The children are all really excited about the books on sale.

This half term's school value:

Year 3 Library Trip

Year 3 had a fantastic morning at Adlington library. They talked about the Lancashire Trail, played, "Which book am I?", picked their own book to bring back to school and even got to be librarians sorting books by authors' surnames.

Congratulations to Eleya Jacobs, Alex Matley, Melissa Heyes, Anna Boston and Oliver Wesley, all in Year 5, who represented the school BRILLIANTLY at the interschool General Knowledge Competition. Did we win? Yes we did! A huge silver trophy is being engraved for our trophy cabinet! Well done! It is definitely cool to be clever!

WINNERS OF DRAW FOR PARENT SURVEY ON THE CURRICULUM
THE PARENTS OF GEORGE WILLIAMS IN RECEPTION. A HAMPER

Music Workshops

Y3, Y4 and Y5 are thoroughly enjoying the music workshops taking place in school. They are learning a new song in a different accent as well as learning about dynamics, pitch and tempo.
